ZiRu Productions presents Simon Ting in a performance of original music and dance.

Simon Ting is a hip hop/pop artist, musician, and dancer from San Francisco, California. He has performed his original music in the US and China. Simon's music is unique and encompasses different styles and qualities. It can be deep and moving as well as upbeat and fun. It can drive your emotions or just make you want to dance. This multi-talented artist will not only be performing his music live, but will also be dancing and drumming live. This is the first time Simon will be performing a show in a live house in China, and he is very excited to see all of you. This multi-talented artist's performance will showcase his live music, dance and drumming.

ZiRu Productions is a San Francisco based production company. The company operates under multiple divisions; including music production which features Simon Ting.
